

Discussion Questions
Loving and serving well at home
Laurence Koo

Question 1:

What has been a blessing in being home right now?
What is your biggest challenge being home right now?

Question 2:

When our lives come to a (full) stop, when we are in the wilderness, our weaknesses or whatever is in our heart is being exposed. What has come up to the surface for you?
What has been exposed?

Question 3:

Where do you need Jesus' touch in your life right now? How can He minister to you, so your 'doing' at home comes out of the overflow?

Question 4:

While you are processing, P.R.A.Y. – Pause, Rejoice, Ask and Yield - Is there anything specific that God is speaking to you about?
Where do you long for growth?

Question 5:

In which specific ways do you want to love and serve at home? Are there any particular ways you want to do that?
What desires do you have for the relationships with the people you are home with now?